CALADIUMS—FANCY LEAF

There is no more ornamental decorative foliage plant than the Caladium. Available in a wide range of varieties, they lend themselves to many uses, and their culture is simple.

CANDIDUM—Especially good for Easter and very popular. Snow white, green veins and network; narrow green border.

DR. M. COOK—Dark moss green, plum center and red ribs. Crumpled leaf, spotted transparent red.

DR. H. NEHRLING — Satiny leaf, transparent rose pink, ribbed scarlet; narrow green border.

HORTILANIA—Transparent rose pink with narrow green border. Strong grower.

JOHN PEED — Brilliant red on moss green background, dark green border. Better than Triumph.

LORD DERBY — Delicate transparent rose ribbed dark green; narrow green border; abundant foliage; a very popular variety.

MRS. ARNO H. NEHRLING—Dwarf compact small leaves, bronze red shading to coppery bronze. Interlaced with red veins.

MRS. W. B. HALDEMAN — Medium-sized leaves, beautiful transparent rose pink, veined pea green, narrow dark green border. Excellent florist variety.

RISING SUN—Brilliant red center and ribs on dark gold tinted background, shading to bright green border. Profusely spotted transparent pink.

SCARLET PIMPERNELLE—Center of leaf is one large scarlet splash, not veined or ribbed, against background of light straw or greenish yellow.

SOROCABA — Popular transparent silvery pink somewhat suffused white, ribbed and veined green.

TRIUMPH EXPOSITION — Large roundish leaves, heavy texture, bright red center, not veined on green background.

GERTRUDE H. HOLLICK—Similar to Mrs. Haldeman but lighter pink with prominent narrow green ribs; color deepens with age.

J. D. EISELE — Brilliant transparent crimson leaves with narrow green border.

MRS. FANNIE MUNSON—Probably the most beautiful of all. Deep carmine overlaid with a bluish tint; heavy scarlet ribbed and narrow green border.

THOMAS TOMLINSON — Prolific grower. Deep transparent red, narrow green border.
